

The Eleventh Annual Seminar for Priests at Arnold Hall

April 7-9, 2015 • Pembroke, MA

Liturgical, Ecclesial, Integral, Kerygmatic and Effective Priestly Preaching

Come Listen to the Following Topics and Speakers

Feasts of the Faith: The Liturgical Calendar as Catholic Culture

By Father Raymond de Souza

Fr. DeSouza is pastor of Sacred Heart of Mary Parish on Wolfe Island in Kingston, Ontario, Chaplain at Queen's University in Kingston, a well-known writer for the National Post, for The National Catholic Register, the editor of Convivium and other publications, and a consultor to the US Bishops on Religious Freedom.

Preaching Isaiah in Advent By Father Stephen Salocks

A priest of the Archdiocese of Boston, Fr. Salocks has taught Sacred Scripture at St. John's Seminary in Boston for over 25 years. He received his License in Biblical Theology from the Pontifical Biblical Institute in 1987. A graduate of Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, he attended Saint John's Seminary, in Boston. He was ordained in 1979. He regularly gives presentations on the priests and clergy workshops.

Pope Francis' Preaching Reform & the Directory of Homiletics

By Father Roger J. Landry

Fr. Landry now works for the Permanent Observer Mission of the Holy See to the United Nations. He is a priest of the Diocese of Fall River, where he has served as pastor of two parishes, Executive Editor of The Anchor, the weekly Diocesan newspaper, and high school chaplain. He writes regularly for various Catholic publications and is national chaplain for Catholic Voices USA.

Preaching the Parables of Jesus in Ordinary Time By Father John Jay Hughes

A priest of the Archdiocese of St. Louis, Father Hughes is a well-known Church history, author and preacher, historian, and preacher. He was a former student of Cardinal Joseph Ratzinger in Germany. He is the author of twelve books, including a book entitled Stories Jesus Told: Modern Meditations on the Parables and his spiritual autobiography, No Ordinary Fool: A Testimony of Grace.

The History of Sacred Preaching and The Integrity of Homiletics: Preaching the Entire Gospel of Salvation (Two Talks)

By Father Ray Atwood

A priest of the Archdiocese of Dubuque, he is pastor of the Prince of Peace Cluster in Traer, Iowa and is the author of two books on preaching, Masters of Preaching, The Most Poignant and Powerful Homilists in Church History. Volumes I and II, which he wrote because when he was looking for a book systematically presenting Church teaching and history on preaching, he could not find one. So he decided to write two. He holds a BA in Journalism/Mass Communications from Drake University, an M.Div. and a MA from the Josephinum.

Seminar Details

- Registration is limited to 75 priests and transitional deacons, so priests are encouraged to register as early as possible.
- The Seminar begins Easter Tuesday, April 7, at 4 pm. Attendees may start arriving at 2 pm. The cost of the Seminar is $200, which includes all great Easter-meals and lodging.
- There is no Mass scheduled for Tuesday, but if priests need to celebrate Mass because of travel, arrangements will be made. On Wednesday, there will be a concelebrated Mass at 11:30. On Thursday there will be a concelebrated Mass at 8 am. The Seminar will finish after a 9 am breakfast. There will be the option to celebrate private Masses for priests who wish. Lauds, Vespers and Compline are prayed each day in common. Eucharistic adoration will also take place. On Wednesday and Thursday there will be preached meditations offered and the availability of the Sacrament of Penance.
- The Seminar is sponsored by the New England Theological Forum, an educational service of the priests of the Prelature of Opus Dei and the Priestly Society of the Holy Cross in the dioceses of New England.

To Register

- Interested priests are asked to reserve a spot by sending an email to fatherlandry@catholicpreaching.com.
- Priests may pay for the Seminar when they arrive with a check made out to Arnold Hall Conference Center.
- Transitional Deacons are likewise welcome to attend the Seminar.