the Art of Prayer*

The Indispensable Necessity of Prayer

- The crisis of secularism, living as God does not exist.
- Sometimes we forget that we have souls, not just bodies and minds.
- We can of course know of God's existence by reason but cannot really come to know God personally without entering into the personal relationship with him in prayer. And if we do not really know God, we won't really know ourselves made in his image and likeness.
- Many are never taught — by word and example — how to have this conversation.
- It may be the single most important thing we need to learn in life.

St. John Paul II on the Necessity of Prayer

- “Training in holiness calls for a Christian life distinguished above all in the art of prayer...” (Novo Millennio Ineunte 32-34)
- “Prayer cannot be taken for granted. We have to learn to pray: as it were learning this art ever anew from the lips of the Divine Master himself, like the first disciples: ‘Lord, teach us to pray!’” (Lk 11:1).
- “It would be wrong to think that ordinary Christians can be content with a shallow prayer that is unable to fill their whole life. Especially in the face of the many trials to which today's world subjects faith, they would be not only mediocre Christians but Christians at risk.’ They would run the insidious risk of seeing their faith progressively undermined, and would perhaps end up succumbing to the allure of ‘substitutes,’ accepting alternative religious proposals and even indulging in far-fetched superstitions.”

St. John Paul II on the Necessity of Prayer

- “It is essential that education in prayer should become in some way a key-point of all pastoral planning.”
- “Prayer develops that conversation with Christ which makes us his intimate friends: ‘Abide in me and I in you’ (Jn 15:4). This reciprocity is the very substance and soul of the Christian life, and the condition of all true pastoral life.”
- “Learning this Trinitarian shape of Christian prayer and living it fully, above all in the liturgy, the summit and source of the Church's life, but also in personal experience, is the secret of a truly vital Christianity.”

Making Time for Prayer

- Prioritizing God in life
 - There is a temptation to make God just an “important part” of our life, trying to “squeeze in” time for Him, rather than building our life and centering our time on our relationship with him.
 - The importance of a fixed time for prayer
 - Learning how to say no to other goods to choose the pearl of great price.
 - Avoiding the activist spirituality of Martha in the kitchen, trying to feed him rather than be fed by him. Fiat versus faciam.
- Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen: “If we’re too busy for prayer, we need two holy hours.”
- The importance of silence

What Prayer Is

- Prayer is an art not a technique.
- Prayer is fundamentally an exchange of persons, not just words, thoughts or affections. Mutual abiding (Jn 15).
- “We do not know how to pray as we ought but the Spirit himself intercedes for us” (Rom 8:26-27).
- The Holy Spirit helps us not by putting words on our lips but transforming us to pray as beloved children of God.
- God is the chief protagonist in prayer, but desires our cooperation.

Prayer in the Old Testament

- Adam and Eve, the righteous Abel, the trusting Noah
- Abraham, builds an altar, has faith tested, intercedes for Sodom, welcomes “three guests” at Mamre, “God will provide the Lamb.”
- Jacob, wrestling with God, the battle of prayer, call to persevere.
- Moses, burning bush, 40 days and nights, prayer of mediation, tent of meeting, glowing face
- Samuel: “Speak, Lord, for your servant is listening.” The whole Old Testament was a school in which to learn to listen to the word of God
- David and the prayer for an understanding heart, prayer of repentance, the building of the Temple.
- Elijah and the gentle breeze, the prayer for miracles like with the widow of Zarephath, against the priests of Ba’al, “Answer me, O Lord, answer me.”
- The Psalms, where the Word of God becomes man’s prayer. “The Psalms constitute the masterwork of prayer in the Old Testament. They present two inseparable qualities: the personal, and the communal. They extend to all dimensions of history, recalling God's promises already fulfilled and looking for the coming of the Messiah. Prayed and fulfilled in Christ, the Psalms are an essential and permanent element of the prayer of the Church. They are suitable for men of every condition and time” (CCC 2596-7).

Learning to Pray from Jesus

- “He was praying in a certain place and when he had ceased, one of his disciples said to him, ‘Lord, teach us to pray.’” (Lk 11:1)
- Jesus came from heaven to earth to teach us how to receive the Father’s love and respond.
- Jesus teaches us to pray through:
 - His example of prayer
 - His actual recorded prayers in the Gospels
 - What he teaches us about the proper dispositions needed for prayer
 - What he teaches us through the Our Father

Jesus' Example of Prayer

- Prayer was something Jesus was always doing.
- Taking himself apart in solitude, at night or early in the morning, apart from others like on mountains, to have quiet time with the Father.
- We see him praying
 - For 40 days in the Desert
 - Before calling the 12 apostles
 - Before his Transfiguration
 - Before several of his miracles, like healing the deaf mute, raising Lazarus from the dead, or the multiplication of loaves and fish.
 - During the Last Supper
 - In the Garden of Gethsemane
 - On the Cross
- In his prayer, he says to us, “Follow me!”

Jesus' Actual Prayers

- For the most part, we don't know the content of Jesus' vital prayer life. Often he prayed in silence or with sighs
 - Then looking up to heaven, he sighed and said to him, "Ephphatha," that is, "Be opened." (Mk 7:34)
 - Jesus sighed deeply in his spirit and said, "Why does this generation ask for a sign? Truly I tell you, no sign will be given to this generation" (Mk 8:12)
- But some of his prayers have been recorded by the evangelists:
 - Praising the Father for revealing the truths of the kingdom to the childlike (Mt 11:25-28)
 - At that time Jesus said in reply, "I give praise to you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, for although you have hidden these things from the wise and the learned you have revealed them to the childlike. Yes, Father, such has been your gracious will. All things have been handed over to me by my Father. No one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son and anyone to whom the Son wishes to reveal him.
 - Asking the Father for the miracle of raising Lazarus on the fourth day (Jn 11:41-43)
 - Jesus raised his eyes and said, "Father, I thank you for hearing me. I know that you always hear me; but because of the crowd here I have said this, that they may believe that you sent me." And when he had said this, he cried out in a loud voice, "Lazarus, come out!"

Jesus' Actual Prayers

- Jesus' great priestly prayer (Jn 17:1-26)
 - Jesus raised his eyes to heaven and said, "Father, the hour has come. Give glory to your son, so that your son may glorify you, just as you gave him authority over all people, so that he may give eternal life to all you gave him. Now this is eternal life, that they should know you, the only true God, and the one whom you sent, Jesus Christ. I glorified you on earth by accomplishing the work that you gave me to do. Now glorify me, Father, with you, with the glory that I had with you before the world began.
 - "I revealed your name to those whom you gave me out of the world. They belonged to you, and you gave them to me, and they have kept your word. Now they know that everything you gave me is from you, because the words you gave to me I have given to them, and they accepted them and truly understood that I came from you, and they have believed that you sent me.
 - I pray for them. I do not pray for the world but for the ones you have given me, because they are yours, and everything of mine is yours and everything of yours is mine, and I have been glorified in them. And now I will no longer be in the world, but they are in the world, while I am coming to you. Holy Father, keep them in your name that you have given me, so that they may be one just as we are. When I was with them I protected them in your name that you gave me, and I guarded them, and none of them was lost except the son of destruction, in order that the scripture might be fulfilled. But now I am coming to you. I speak this in the world so that they may share my joy completely.

Jesus' Actual Prayers

- Jesus' great priestly prayer (Jn 17:1-26)
 - I am coming to you. I speak this in the world so that they may share my joy completely.
 - I gave them your word, and the world hated them, because they do not belong to the world any more than I belong to the world. I do not ask that you take them out of the world but that you keep them from the evil one. They do not belong to the world any more than I belong to the world.
 - Consecrate them in the truth. Your word is truth. As you sent me into the world, so I sent them into the world. And I consecrate myself for them, so that they also may be consecrated in truth.
 - I pray not only for them, but also for those who will believe in me through their word, so that they may all be one, as you, Father, are in me and I in you, that they also may be in us, that the world may believe that you sent me. And I have given them the glory you gave me, so that they may be one, as we are one, I in them and you in me, that they may be brought to perfection as one, that the world may know that you sent me, and that you loved them even as you loved me.
 - Father, they are your gift to me. I wish that where I am they also may be with me, that they may see my glory that you gave me, because you loved me before the foundation of the world.
 - Righteous Father, the world also does not know you, but I know you, and they know that you sent me. I made known to them your name and I will make it known, that the love with which you loved me may be in them and I in them.”

Jesus' Actual Prayers

- Prayer to do the Father's will in the Garden of Gethsemane (Mt 26:36-45)
 - Jesus came with them to a place called Gethsemane, and he said to his disciples, "Sit here while I go over there and pray." He took along Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, and began to feel sorrow and distress. Then he said to them, "My soul is sorrowful even to death. Remain here and keep watch with me."
 - He advanced a little and fell prostrate in prayer, saying, "My Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass from me; yet, not as I will, but as you will."
 - When he returned to his disciples he found them asleep. He said to Peter, "So you could not keep watch with me for one hour? Watch and pray that you may not undergo the test. The spirit is willing, but the flesh is weak."
 - Withdrawing a second time, he prayed again, "My Father, if it is not possible that this cup pass without my drinking it, your will be done!"
 - Then he returned once more and found them asleep, for they could not keep their eyes open. He left them and withdrew again and prayed a third time, saying the same thing again.
 - Then he returned to his disciples and said to them, "Are you still sleeping and taking your rest? Behold, the hour is at hand when the Son of Man is to be handed over to sinners

Jesus' Actual Prayers

- Prayers from the Cross
 - Jesus said, “Father, forgive them, they know not what they do.” (Lk 23:34)
 - At three o’clock Jesus cried out in a loud voice, “Eloi, Eloi, lema sabachthani?” which is translated, “My God, my God, why have you forsaken me? (Mk 15:34, citing Ps 22)
 - Jesus cried out in a loud voice, “Father, into your hands I commend my spirit”; and when he had said this he breathed his last (Lk 23:46)

Jesus' Revelation about the Attributes of Christian Prayer

- To the Father, as beloved children confident in the Father's knowledge and love.
 - “Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat [or drink], or about your body, what you will wear. Is not life more than food and the body more than clothing? Look at the birds in the sky; they do not sow or reap, they gather nothing into barns, yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are not you more important than they? Can any of you by worrying add a single moment to your life-span? Why are you anxious about clothes? Learn from the way the wild flowers grow. They do not work or spin. But I tell you that not even Solomon in all his splendor was clothed like one of them. If God so clothes the grass of the field, which grows today and is thrown into the oven tomorrow, will he not much more provide for you, O you of little faith? So do not worry and say, ‘What are we to eat?’ or ‘What are we to drink?’ or ‘What are we to wear?’ All these things the pagans seek. Your heavenly Father knows that you need them all. But seek first the kingdom [of God] and his righteousness, and all these things will be given you besides” (Mt 6:25-33)
 - “Ask and it will be given to you; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you. For everyone who asks, receives; and the one who seeks, finds; and to the one who knocks, the door will be opened. Which one of you would hand his son a stone when he asks for a loaf of bread, or a snake when he asks for a fish? If you then, who are wicked, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your heavenly Father give good things to those who ask him” (Mt 7:7-11)

Jesus' Revelation about the Attributes of Christian Prayer

- Helped by the Holy Spirit
 - At that very moment he rejoiced in the Holy Spirit and said, "I give you praise, Father..." (Lk 10:20)
 - "When they lead you away and hand you over, do not worry beforehand about what you are to say. But say whatever will be given to you at that hour. For it will not be you who are speaking but the Holy Spirit" (Mk 13:11)
 - "I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate to be with you always, the Spirit of truth" (Jn 14:16-17)
 - "The Advocate, the holy Spirit that the Father will send in my name – he will teach you everything and remind you of all that [I] told you" (Jn 14:26)
 - "When the Advocate comes whom I will send you from the Father, the Spirit of truth that proceeds from the Father, he will testify to me" (Jn 15:26)
 - "I have much more to tell you, but you cannot bear it now. But when he comes, the Spirit of truth, he will guide you to all truth. He will not speak on his own, but he will speak what he hears, and will declare to you the things that are coming. He will glorify me, because he will take from what is mine and declare it to you" (Jn 16:12)
 - He enjoined them not to depart from Jerusalem, but to wait for "the promise of the Father about which you have heard me speak; for John baptized with water, but in a few days you will be baptized with the holy Spirit," ... All these devoted themselves with one accord to prayer, together with some women, and Mary the mother of Jesus, and his brothers. (Acts 1:4-5, 14)
 - "When the time for Pentecost was fulfilled, they were all in one place together. And suddenly there came from the sky a noise like a strong driving wind, and it filled the entire house in which they were. Then there appeared to them tongues as of fire, which parted and came to rest on each one of them. And they were all filled with the holy Spirit and began to speak in different tongues, as the Spirit enabled them to proclaim" (Acts 2:1-4)

Jesus' Revelation about the Attributes of Christian Prayer

- In his name — asking together with him.
 - “Whatever you ask in my name, I will do, so that the Father may be glorified in the Son. If you ask anything of me in my name, I will do it” (Jn 14:13).
 - “It was not you who chose me, but I who chose you and appointed you to go and bear fruit that will remain, so that whatever you ask the Father in my name he may give you” (Jn 15:16)
 - “Amen, amen, I say to you, whatever you ask the Father in my name he will give you. Until now you have not asked anything in my name; ask and you will receive, so that your joy may be complete. On that day you will not question me about anything. Amen, amen, I say to you, whatever you ask the Father in my name he will give you. Until now you have not asked anything in my name; ask and you will receive, so that your joy may be complete. I have told you this in figures of speech. The hour is coming when I will no longer speak to you in figures but I will tell you clearly about the Father. On that day you will ask in my name, and I do not tell you that I will ask the Father for you. For the Father himself loves you, because you have loved me and have come to believe that I came from God” (Jn 16:23-6).
 - “Where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them” (Mt 18:20).
 - “These signs will accompany those who believe: in my name they will drive out demons...” (Mk 16:17)

Jesus' Revelation about the Attributes of Christian Prayer

- Faith
 - Jesus said to him, “If you can!’ Everything is possible to one who has faith”(Mk 9:23)
 - “Amen, I say to you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move. Nothing will be impossible for you” (Mt 17:20).
 - Jesus said to them in reply, “Amen, I say to you, if you have faith and do not waver, not only will you do what has been done to the fig tree, but even if you say to this mountain, ‘Be lifted up and thrown into the sea,’ it will be done. Whatever you ask for in prayer with faith, you will receive” (Mt 21:21-22).
 - Then he touched [the blind men’s] eyes and said, “Let it be done for you according to your faith” (Mt 9:29).
 - Then Jesus said to her in reply, “O woman, great is your faith! Let it be done for you as you wish.” And her daughter was healed from that hour” (Mt 15:28).
 - “Therefore I tell you, all that you ask for in prayer, believe that you will receive it and it shall be yours” (Mk 11:24)

Jesus' Revelation about the Attributes of Christian Prayer

○ Humility and repentance

- Jesus then addressed this parable to those who were convinced of their own righteousness and despised everyone else. “Two people went up to the temple area to pray; one was a Pharisee and the other was a tax collector. The Pharisee took up his position and spoke this prayer to himself, “O God, I thank you that I am not like the rest of humanity – greedy, dishonest, adulterous – or even like this tax collector. I fast twice a week, and I pay tithes on my whole income.’ But the tax collector stood off at a distance and would not even raise his eyes to heaven but beat his breast and prayed, ‘O God, be merciful to me a sinner.’ I tell you, the latter went home justified, not the former; for everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted” (Lk 18:9-14)

○ Conversion of heart

- “If you bring your gift to the altar, and there recall that your brother has anything against you, leave your gift there at the altar, go first and be reconciled with your brother, and then come and offer your gift” (Mt 5:23)
- “I say to you, love your enemies, and pray for those who persecute you, that you may be children of your heavenly Father, for he makes his sun rise on the bad and the good, and causes rain to fall on the just and the unjust” (Mt 5:44)
- “If you forgive others their transgressions, your heavenly Father will forgive you. But if you do not forgive others, neither will your Father forgive your transgressions” (Mt 6:14).

Jesus' Revelation about the Attributes of Christian Prayer

- Rectitude of intention
 - “When you pray, do not be like the hypocrites, who love to stand and pray in the synagogues and on street corners so that others may see them. Amen, I say to you, they have received their reward. But when you pray, go to your inner room, close the door, and pray to your Father in secret. And your Father who sees in secret will repay you” (Mt 6:5-6)
 - “For where your treasure is, there also will your heart be” (Mt 6:21)
 - “Seek first the kingdom [of God] and his righteousness, and all these things will be given you besides” (Mt 6:32)
- Sincerity
 - “In praying, do not babble like the pagans, who think that they will be heard because of their many words” (Mt 6:7).
- Vigilance
 - “Therefore, stay awake! For you do not know on which day your Lord will come” (Mt 24:42)
 - “Therefore, stay awake, for you know neither the day nor the hour” (Mt 25:1-13)
 - “Watch and pray that you may not undergo the test. The spirit is willing, but the flesh is weak” (Mt 26:41)

Jesus' Revelation about the Attributes of Christian Prayer

○ Perseverance

- Jesus said to them, “Suppose one of you has a friend to whom he goes at midnight and says, “Friend, lend me three loaves of bread, for a friend of mine has arrived at my house from a journey and I have nothing to offer him,’ and he says in reply from within, ‘Do not bother me; the door has already been locked and my children and I are already in bed. I cannot get up to give you anything.’ I tell you, if he does not get up to give him the loaves because of their friendship, he will get up to give him whatever he needs because of his persistence. And I tell you, ask and you will receive; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you. For everyone who asks, receives; and the one who seeks, finds; and to the one who knocks, the door will be opened” (Lk 11:5-10).
- Then Jesus told them a parable about the necessity for them to pray always without becoming weary. He said, “There was a judge in a certain town who neither feared God nor respected any human being. And a widow in that town used to come to him and say, ‘Render a just decision for me against my adversary.’ For a long time the judge was unwilling, but eventually he thought, “While it is true that I neither fear God nor respect any human being, because this widow keeps bothering me I shall deliver a just decision for her lest she finally come and strike me.” The Lord said, “Pay attention to what the dishonest judge says. Will not God then secure the rights of his chosen ones who call out to him day and night? Will he be slow to answer them? I tell you, he will see to it that justice is done for them speedily. But when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on earth?”

Jesus' Revelation about the Attributes of Christian Prayer

- Union with the will of God
 - “Not everyone who says to me, ‘Lord, Lord,’ will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only the one who does the will of my Father in heaven” (Mt 7:21)
 - Jesus said to them, “My food is to do the will of the one who sent me and to finish his work” (Jn 4:34)

- Jesus also hears our prayer
 - CCC 2616: Prayer to Jesus is answered by him already during his ministry, through signs that anticipate the power of his death and Resurrection: Jesus hears the prayer of faith, expressed in words (the leper, Jairus, the Canaanite woman, the good thief) or in silence (the bearers of the paralytic, the woman with a hemorrhage who touches his clothes, the tears and ointment of the sinful woman). The urgent request of the blind men, "Have mercy on us, Son of David" or "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!" has been renewed in the traditional prayer to Jesus known as the Jesus Prayer: "Lord Jesus Christ, Son of God, have mercy on me, a sinner!" Healing infirmities or forgiving sins, Jesus always responds to a prayer offered in faith: "Your faith has made you well; go in peace."
 - St. Augustine wonderfully summarizes the three dimensions of Jesus' prayer: "He prays for us as our priest, prays in us as our Head, and is prayed to by us as our God. Therefore let us acknowledge our voice in him and his in us."

What Jesus Teaches Us in the Lord's Prayer

- Introduction
 - Direct response to petition to teach us to pray
 - Tertullian: The Our Father is a “summary of the whole Gospel”
 - Does not show us a formula – hence the different versions in Matthew and Luke – but it does reveal a sequence of what we should be desiring most in prayer. The first three draw us to the glory of the Father and the final four commend our most basic needs to him.
 - “We dare to say!” – Filial boldness. Many sincere people hesitate because they wonder whether they can actually say it!
 - The Holy Spirit helps us to cry out “Abba, Father”
- God and us
 - “Father” – all prayer is directed to him. We are his beloved adopted children. The name is already praise!
 - “Our” – We pray together in communion with the whole Church. “Where two or more are gathered.” We pray in spite of sad divisions. Our petitions exclude no one and can help overcome divisions.

What Jesus Teaches Us in the Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy Kingdom come.

Thy will be done in earth
as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our tres-
passes, as we forgive them that trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. Amen.

- “Who Art in Heaven” – Heaven is less a place than a way of being. We seek to be with him as citizens of heaven. He is our true homeland.
- “Hallowed by thy name” – Hallow is not causative but evaluative. God’s name is holy and we give witness to that holiness through holiness of life, so that others in seeing our good deeds may glorify him.
- “Thy kingdom come” – Jesus’ whole preaching was about the Kingdom of God’s being at hand and growing. This phrase refers to the definitive coming but also spurs us to bring the values of the kingdom to this world.
- “Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven” – The way we enter his kingdom and hallow his name is through doing God’s will, loving him and others. He has made known to us the mystery of his will and we echo Jesus’ “Not my will but yours be done.” We want to fulfill his plan of salvation in the world. God’s family is constituted by those who do the will of the Father in heaven.

What Jesus Teaches Us in the Lord's Prayer

- Petitions regarding ourselves and others
 - “Give us this day our epiousios bread” – “Give us” comes from children who trust in his providence. God’s generosity in providing for us not just material food but his Word (“man does not live on bread alone”) and the Eucharist, each day.
 - “Forgive us our trespasses as we have forgiven...” – This is an astonishing prayer for mercy, opened to receive it through our being merciful like the Father. We must forgive our enemies from our heart.
 - “Lead us not into temptation” – We’re asking for the strength to remain faithful when tempted in battle, to choose God.
 - “Deliver us from [the] evil [one]” – We ask for protection from the devil, his empty promises and evil works. It’s a prayer for final perseverance.

Learning Prayer through Mary

- Mary taught the early Church how to pray.
- Overshadowed by the Holy Spirit.
- Woman of faith – “Blessed are you who believed”
- Contemplative memory: “Mary kept all these things, pondering them in her heart” (Lk 2:19,51).
- Woman of the Word
 - Synthesizes Scripture, as we see in her Magnificat.
 - The spirituality of the ancilla Domini and her fiat.
- Woman of Silence.
- Asks questions: “How can this be?”
- Intercessory prayer: she goes to Jesus directly as in Cana.
- We seek to pray in communion with her. The importance of the Rosary, the Angelus, the Memorare.

Forms of Prayer

- This refers to the “content” of our prayer. Just as in human conversations, we’ll praise them if they’ve done something well, we’ll occasionally thank others for kindnesses, we’ll ask for their forgiveness if we’ve hurt them in any way, we’ll ask them for things they might be able to help us with; it’s the same way with God.

- Our conversation with God, from our end, can take the form of:
 - Praising, adoring and blessing Him for who he is
 - Thanking Him for his abundant gifts to us, to others, to the world
 - Sorrowfully begging his forgiveness for our sins and those of others.
 - Interceding with him for what others need
 - Petitioning him for what we need

Expressions of Prayer

- This refers to the actual “structure” that guides our prayer with the Lord. There are essentially three traditional expressions of prayer:
 - Vocal prayer – When we pray with the words given to us by others. Mens concordet voci. Need to align our minds to what our words say. We begin with words.
 - Meditation – When we “chew” on particular texts or items, breaking them down to understand them. We begin with thoughts. Two most famous methods:
 - St. Ignatius’ Composition of Place.
 - The Benedictine Lectio Divina
 - Contemplation – When we pray fundamentally from the heart through affections. It’s a gaze fixed on God, a silent love, by which God gives an interior knowledge.

Fonts of Prayer

- This refers to the raw materials we use to seek, find, love, obey and become more like God.
- There are several wells that enable us to drink of the Spirit:
 - Word of God
 - Liturgy of the Church
 - The theological virtues (faith, hope and love) by which “God speaks” in human behavior.
 - Day-to-Day life, the events that occur during the day, bringing them to the Lord of history

Guides of Prayer

- This refers to those who can teach us to pray better. There are several:
 - The saints
 - The spiritualities and charisms – Carmelite, Franciscan, Dominican, Jesuit, Salesian, Opus Dei, etc. – that have been handed on.
 - The Christian family, as a domestic church
 - Ordained Ministers
 - Religious Fathers, Sisters, Brothers
 - Catechists
 - Spiritual directors
 - Prayer Groups

Obstacles to Prayer

- Dryness
- Distractions, worldly cares and anxieties, pleasures
- Discouragement, normally when we feel that our prayers haven't been heard and we're a failure.
- Fear of what God might ask and trying therefore to control the conversation with God.
- Lack of faith
- Lack of perseverance. Acedia.
- Lack of practical love for God in living the Christian life.

HABITS
YOU GROW
CLOSER
TO GOD

For More

If you would like more help on integrating prayer into your life so that you might become an “existence made prayer” and experience the secret of a “truly vital Christianity,” I would encourage you to read my 2018 book, Plan of Life, Habits to Help You Grow Closer to God, available through the Daughters of St. Paul (Pauline Books and Media) and via Amazon.com.

I wrote the book to help people learn the habits so that they might be able to “pray always without losing heart,” by learning how to keep the presence of God not just in formal times of prayer but in their work and family life.

Welcome!

I warmly welcome you to this website, put together at the insistence and with the assistance of friends.

During my diaconal ordination, Cardinal Edmund Szoka gave me the following instruction from the Ordination Rite as together we gripped the Book of the Gospels:

*"Receive the Gospel of Christ, whose herald you now are.
Believe what you read,
Teach what you believe,
Practice what you teach."*

Those words have never lost their resonance.

Since that day -- October 8, 1998 -- I have tried to live up to that commission to be a "herald of the Gospel," by striving to teach what the Church believes, to practice what I preach to others, and to spread with joy and enthusiasm the truth Christ has entrusted to His church -- in and out of season, in and out of the pulpit.

This website is a chronicle of those attempts. You may also follow postings of articles, homilies and teachings on Facebook, Twitter and Youtube.

You can also subscribe to the podcast of daily homilies, lectures and talks through Apple Podcasts and Google Podcasts.

It constitutes the "five loaves and two fish" (or even less!) that I have placed into the hands of the Lord as an attempt to feed a hungry crowd, confident that, if He wishes, He can multiply and supplement that meager offering to nourish many more (Jn 6:1-14).

In Christ,
Fr. Roger J. Landry
