The minister stands and continues:

Let us pray. O God, who in this wonderful Sacrament have left us a memorial of your Passion, grant us, we pray, so to revere the sacred mysteries of your Body and Blood that we may always experience in ourselves the fruits of your redemption. Who live and reign with God the Father in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. ℟. Amen.

℟. Amen.

After the prayer, the priest or deacon puts on the humeral veil, genuflects, and, taking the monstrance, makes a sign of the cross over the people in silence. There may follow the recitation of the Divine Praises or another appropriate acclamation.

THE CHAPLET OF DIVINE MERCY

Saint Faustina Kowalska (1905-1938)

Opening Prayer

You expired, Jesus, but the source of life gushed forth for souls, and the ocean of mercy opened up for the whole world. O Fount of Life, unfathomable Divine Mercy, envelop the whole world and empty Yourself out upon us.

Repeat three times:

O Blood and Water, which gushed forth from the Heart of Jesus as a fountain of Mercy for us, I trust in You!

Recite one Our Father, one Hail Mary, and the Apostle's Creed. Then, on the Our Father beads of the rosary, say the following words:

Eternal Father, I offer you the Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity of Your Dearly Beloved Son, Our Lord, Jesus Christ, in atonement for our sins and those of the whole world.

On the Hail Mary beads, say the following words:

For the sake of His sorrowful Passion, have mercy on us and on the whole world.

At the conclusion of the chaplet, say three times:

Holy God, Holy Mighty One, Holy Immortal One, have mercy on us and on the whole world

Closing Prayer

Eternal God, in whom mercy is endless and the treasury of compassion inexhaustible, look kindly upon us and increase Your mercy in us, that in difficult moments we might not despair nor become despondent, but with great confidence submit ourselves to Your holy will, which is Love and Mercy itself.
